

To help the helpers

As you will know, each Easter over 2000 disabled and disadvantaged children, from whatever background or religion, benefit from a pilgrimage holiday to Lourdes in the French Pyrenees. Hundreds of adults enjoy a similar experience at Hosanna House, a residential centre owned by the Trust, which is situated in the village of Bartres, just outside Lourdes.

Many helpers now find it difficult to pay the fare at one time. To help with this problem the Trust has introduced a fare payment instalment scheme, whereby helpers can pay on a regular basis prior to the pilgrimage, via a standing order from their Bank to HCPT.

This scheme can also be used for adult pilgrims to Hosanna House.

How does it work?

First you decide how much you can afford to set aside each month. Then complete the attached Standing Order form and return it to the Trust at the address on the back of the form.

When the Trust receives the completed Standing Order form, the details will be passed to your Bank. Each month in accordance with your Standing Order authority the Bank will pay the instructed amount to us.

You can ask the Trust by phone or letter at any time to tell you how much money you have paid towards your fare.

Once the standing order is set up, if you would like to amend the amount, or cancel the standing order, then you will need to contact your bank directly.
